

Statewide Art Contest

What Does Home Mean to You?

Florida Housing Finance Corporation is hosting a statewide art contest inviting kids across all counties in Florida to submit their unique designs showcasing what the word “home” means to them.

The top 40 designs, chosen by an internal review committee, will be prominently displayed in the Florida Housing Finance Corporation building in Tallahassee throughout the month of June in honor of National Homeownership Month. The artwork will also be published on Florida Housing's website.

HOW TO ENTER

Kids & teens between the ages of 5-18 are invited to create a drawing on the back of this page, or on another plain piece of paper.

Submit your design by May 3:

- Scan or take a photo of your design & upload it at www.floridahousing.org

– or –

- Mail it to us at the following address:
*Florida Housing Finance Corporation
Attn: External Affairs Department
227 N. Bronough Street, Suite 5000
Tallahassee, FL 32301*

Artist Name:

Artist Age:

City/ County:

Parent's name:

Email Address:

Phone Number:

What Does Home Mean to You?