

Public Workshop Nassau County Transit Study

You are invited to attend a public workshop to suggest local transit service that best meets your needs.

The workshop is part of a transit study being conducted by the North Florida TPO, in partnership with Nassau County stakeholders, to determine local transit needs and recommend transit services to improve mobility and access for Nassau County residents and employees.

Wednesday, May 20, 2015
6 – 7:30 p.m.
Florida State College at Jacksonville
Betty P. Cook Nassau Center
Nassau Room
76346 William Burgess Boulevard
Yulee, FL 32097

The meeting will begin with a presentation, followed by a question and answer period and small group discussions. The workshop will provide an excellent opportunity for residents, employees, business owners and community leaders from throughout Nassau County to review and discuss local transit needs and suggest transit route options that best meet the needs of the community. Hear about the study and input received to date. Discuss options for local transit serving Nassau County.

For more study information or questions regarding the study or workshop, contact April Bacchus, Project Manager, England-Thims & Miller (904)265-3224, bacchusa@etminc.com

