“Property Appraiser to Host Town Hall Meetings”

Nassau County, FL – Nassau County Property Appraiser Mike Hickox will host two town hall meetings within the next few weeks to discuss 2015 property values and answer any questions concerning property assessments and exemptions.

This will be an opportunity for property owners to learn more about the valuation process, receive updates about the office, and ask any questions to help them better understand their assessments prior to receiving their notice of proposed taxes. New 2015 preliminary values are now posted on the Property Appraiser’s website.
